

A studio photograph of two women sitting on a light-colored surface. The woman on the left wears a light purple hijab and a matching long-sleeved dress. The woman on the right wears a light beige hijab and a matching long-sleeved dress. Both women have their cheeks decorated with small, colorful floral stickers. They are both looking towards the camera with gentle smiles. The background is a plain, light grey wall. Several long-stemmed flowers, including red tulips, white tulips, and yellow tulips, are suspended in the air around the women, creating a whimsical effect. A thick, light brown rope hangs vertically in the background, slightly to the right of the center.
